DELAWARE INVESTMENTS NATIONAL MUNICIPAL INCOME FUND ANNOUNCES FINAL RESULTS OF TENDER OFFER

PHILADELPHIA, October 7, 2011 — Delaware Investments National Municipal Income Fund (NYSE Amex: VFL) (the “Fund”), a closed-end management investment company, today announced the final results of its tender offer for up to 994,051 shares of its common stock, representing 18% of its issued and outstanding shares of common stock. The offer expired at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on Friday, September 30, 2011.

Based on a count by Mellon Investor Services, LLC, the depositary for the tender offer, approximately 1,699,110 shares of common stock, or approximately 30.767% of the Fund's common stock outstanding, were tendered, and 994,051 shares have been accepted for cash payment at a price equal to $13.32 per share (which is 99% of the Fund's net asset value per share as of the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange on October 3, 2011). Since the tender offer was oversubscribed, all tenders of shares are subject to proration (at a ratio of approximately .585042310) in accordance with the terms of the tender offer. Following the purchase of the tendered shares, the Fund will have approximately 4,528,443 shares of common stock outstanding.

The Fund is a closed-end fund managed by Delaware Management Company, a series of Delaware Management Business Trust. The investment objective of the Fund is to provide current income exempt from regular federal income tax, consistent with the preservation of capital. The Fund has the ability to utilize leveraging techniques in an attempt to obtain a higher return for the Fund. At present, the Fund does not have any outstanding leverage. There is no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objective.
