DELAWARE INVESTMENTS WITH MACQUARIE GROUP RAISES $242,000 FOR PHILADELPHIA WOODEN BOAT FACTORY

Philadelphia, Oct. 18, 2010 -- Deepa Vasudevan, chairwoman of the Philadelphia Wooden Boat Factory board, and Patrick P. Coyne, president of Macquarie Group's Delaware Investments, stand with the big check at the conclusion of the Delaware Investments Charity Classic VI. This year's charity golf tournament benefitted Philadelphia Wooden Boat Factory, a maritime education organization whose mission is to engage the city's youth through hands-on, experiential programming inspired by the heritage of the sea.

Through the tournament's sponsors, employee events, and on-course promotions like mulligans and a putting challenge, Delaware Investments raised just more than $120,000. Macquarie Group's philanthropic arm – the Macquarie Group Foundation -- generously matched this, bringing the grand total to $242,000.

Macquarie Group Foundation supports more than 1,000 community organizations across the world, and it places a priority on supporting organizations where its staff are personally involved.

In the six years it has hosted its charity golf tournament; Delaware Investments has raised $899,000 for local organizations. The tournament took place on Monday, Oct. 11, 2010 at Fieldstone Golf Club in Greenville, Del.
