DELAWARE INVESTMENTS BUILDS OUT ITS RETAIL DISTRIBUTION TEAM

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20, 2011 -- Delaware Investments today announced it has added two regional directors to its third-party retail distribution team that services financial intermediaries throughout the country. Joining the team are Theodore "Teddy" Moran in Manhattan and Jeffrey Lamb in the greater San Francisco Bay area.

Moran joins Delaware Investments from Tocqueville Asset Management where he served as director of sales, responsible for sales, key accounts, product solutions and marketing. Previously he held various positions in the retail financial services industry with Legg Mason, Citigroup Asset Management and was a financial advisor early in his career.

Lamb comes to Delaware with 20 years of industry experience, most recently with Alliance Bernstein and, prior to that, Lord Abbett and Invesco. His breadth of sales experience covers separately managed accounts, mutual funds and qualified plans.

"At Delaware, we continue to add talented and experienced sales professionals to our team," said Jeff Klepacki, senior vice president and head of third-party distribution for Delaware Investments. "With this challenging economic environment, it's important to have people representing Delaware Investments who have strong relationships and who we believe can really help financial advisors with the growth of their businesses. With that in mind, Teddy and Jeff are important additions to our sales team."
